

FACL BC

FEDERATION OF ASIAN CANADIAN LAWYERS

Last updated: November 16, 2021

Jurisdiction	Contact Person	# of Credits or Instructions to Claim CPD
British Columbia	Email: cpd@lsbc.org Phone: 604.605.5311	1 CPD credit including ethics
Alberta	Phone: 403.229.4700 Toll free at 1.800.661.9003	Alberta's CPD requirements are suspended in the profession from 2020 to May 2023 as the Law Society is changing how the CPD credits are going to be issued moving forward. In the past, Alberta lawyers were not required to reach a certain number of CPD credits annually, but it appears that that is going to be changed. More information can be found here .
Saskatchewan	Andrea Johnston, Director of Admissions & Education Contact info here . Email: cpd@lawsociety.sk.ca	1 CPD credit approved for ethics. Organizations must complete and submit a CPD Activity Application Form for each of the programs they wish to have approved. See here .
Manitoba	Kirsty Hyduk, Programs Assistant, Continuing Professional Development Email: cpd@lawsociety.mb.ca Phone: 204.926.2035	The Law Society of Manitoba does not formally accredit or pre-approve any programs for CPD reporting purposes, instead it is up to practising members to determine if a particular CPD activity meets the Law Society's requirements and if they may report those CPD hours. Members can view the requirements and guidelines on Law Society's website here . Review the Eligible Activities Subject Matter Chart under the heading Qualifying Activities as it provides a nice summary of the kinds of subject matter that would fall into the definition of eligible CPD activities.
Ontario	Email: cpdacc@lso.ca Phone: 1.800.668.7380 or 416.947.3315	1 hour CPD credit approved for EDI professionalism. LSO introduced a new online CPD accreditation platform available here . This easy to use and intuitive platform will allow CPD providers to submit applications for accreditation of professionalism hours through a secure online service. It will also allow users to upload supporting documentation and track the status of their application(s). CPD Accreditation Platform here .
Quebec	Email: formation.continue@barreau.qc.ca Phone: 514.954.3411 or	Open a provider file here . Once you receive a provider number, submit a request for evaluation of your activity by the CPD committee by completing

FACL BC

FEDERATION OF ASIAN CANADIAN LAWYERS

	1.844.954.3411	the training activity eligibility verification request form here . For more information, visit here . Please note these resources are only available in French.
Prince Edward Island	Susan M. Robinson, Q.C., Secretary-Treasurer and Executive Director: srobinson@lspei.pe.ca Lisa MacKay, Financial Officer & Education Coordinator: lmackay@lspei.pe.ca	No information available
New Brunswick	Marc Richard	1 CPD credit
Newfoundland and Labrador	Christian Hurley Email: churley@lsnl.ca Phone: 709.722.4898	The Law Society will not assess or accredit providers, content or subject matter in advance. However, it is anticipated that many professional learning activities will qualify and meet the requirements of an eligible CLE activity, provided a common-sense and reasonable nexus or link can be demonstrated between the activity and an enhancement in professional competence.
Nova Scotia	Email: CPD@nsbs.org Phone: 902.422.1491 (ext. 371).	The Law Society does not accredit courses offered by CLE providers nor assign hours to a course. It is the decision of each lawyer whether a CPD course or activity meets the requirements of Regulation 8.3.3 and whether to include it in their CPD Plan.
Yukon	Email: info@lawsocietyyukon.com Executive Director, Linda Doll: Linda.Doll@lawsocietyyukon.com	The Law Society of Yukon does not accredit courses or course providers. This website provides a list of recorded CPD events here .
Northwest Territories	Email: info@lawsociety.nt.ca Phone: 867.873.3828	The Law Society has already advertised the event as CPD eligible.
Nunavut	Adeltrudes De Belen Email: administrator@lawsociety.nu.ca Phone: 844.979.2330	The Law Society will not accredit providers or subject matter, but will have the discretion to determine which activities are recognized based on the Guidelines for Eligible CPD Activities.